Tuning Notes (Anjits) There are 2 tunings of the notes B, D, E, Eb, & F#.

- Anjits function like accidentals, that is, they last for the duration of a bar, and continue over a bar when they are tied.
- Tunings of the notes are as follows:

A = O (origin)
A# = ∇ (very relaxed)
Bb = Λ (bright)
B = ↗ (slightly bright) and V (relaxed)
C = Λ (bright)
C# = V (relaxed)
Db = Δ (very bright)
D = ↓ (slightly relaxed) and Λ (bright)
D# = ∇ (very relaxed)
E = ↗ (slightly bright) and V (relaxed)
Eb = ↗ (slightly bright) and Δ (very bright).
E# = ∇ (very relaxed)
F = Λ (bright)
F# = V (relaxed) and ↗ (slightly bright)
G = ↓ (slightly relaxed)
G# = V (relaxed)
Ab = Δ (very bright).
